

Ms Rita Schembri

Ms Rita Schembri heads the Economic Analysis Department at the Central Bank of Malta. She contributes regularly to the work of the ECB's Monetary Policy Committee and its working group on forecasting. She also participates in ECB working groups discussing general economic and government finance statistics. Previously, she also served as member on the ECB's working group on public finance. Ms Schembri has reviewed a number of papers issued by the Economic Analysis Department and herself authored material related to public finance, the labour market and the construction sector in Malta. Before joining the Economic Analysis Department, she also worked on issues related to Malta's membership in the international financial institutions and on economic convergence. Ms Schembri holds an MSc degree in Financial Economics from the University of London.
