

Sabine Lautenschläger

After passing the second state examination in law, Sabine Lautenschläger joined the Bundesaufsichtsamt für das Kreditwesen (BAKred – Federal Banking Supervisory Office), which later became the Bundesanstalt für Finanzdienstleistungsaufsicht (BaFin – Federal Financial Supervisory Authority). In the course of her career at BAKred/BaFin, she held several management positions before being appointed BaFin's Chief Executive Director of Banking Supervision in 2008. Later, in 2011, she was also appointed a Member of the Management Board and Board of Supervisors of the European Banking Authority (EBA) in London.

In 2011 Sabine Lautenschläger moved to the Deutsche Bundesbank, serving as Vice-President until January 2014 when she was appointed to the Executive Board of the European Central Bank. As Member of the Executive Board she is also Member of the Governing Council which is responsible for monetary policy in the euro area. Since her appointment as Vice-Chair of the Supervisory Board of the Single Supervisory Mechanism (SSM) in February 2014, she has also been in charge of ECB Banking Supervision. She represents the ECB Banking Supervision on the Basel Committee on Banking Supervision and in the Financial Stability Board Plenary.