

Central Bank of Malta: Social Media Terms of Use

Content

Content published on our social media accounts is copyrighted and can only be shared if the source is acknowledged. The Central Bank of Malta reserves the right to hide or delete comments or posts which are considered to be inappropriate, abusive, discriminatory, harassing, derogatory and defamatory. It also reserves the right to report such comments to the platform involved.

Following

If you follow us on social media, we will not automatically follow you back. Being followed does not imply any form of endorsement by the Central Bank of Malta.

Sharing

Sharing of third party content is not an endorsement of opinion or comment. We may share certain content where we feel it may be of interest to our followers.

Availability

We will update and monitor our social media accounts during office hours on working days only. The Central Bank of Malta is not responsible for any lack of service due to social media downtime.

Feedback

We may not always be in a position to reply directly to messages sent via social media and users are advised to direct enquiries as below.

Queries

All queries, including those in relation to our use of social media, are to be sent via e-mail.

March 2020