Directive No 14

CENTRAL CREDIT REGISTER

Issued on: 15th February 2016

Amended on: 1st March 2018, 15th October 2020, 22nd December 2020 and 11th July 2024

INTRODUCTION

1. In terms of article 24(2) of the Central Bank of Malta Act (Cap. 204 of the Laws of Malta) (hereinafter referred to as “the Act”), the Central Bank of Malta (hereinafter referred to as “the Bank”) has been empowered to issue directives in respect of, inter alia, the organisation and functioning of a Central Credit Register (hereinafter referred to as “the Register”) held at the Bank.

SCOPE AND APPLICATION DEFINITIONS

2. This Directive lays down rules concerning the obligations of the Bank, credit institutions, and the Malta Development Bank to provide information in relation to the Register. Furthermore, the Directive sets out the rules on the right of access to the information held on the Register by the Bank, credit institutions, the Malta Development Bank, credit reference agencies and by other institutions as stipulated in article 24(4) of the Act.
3. This Directive shall apply without prejudice to the Data Protection Act (Cap. 586 of the Laws of Malta) and other local and EU data protection legislation in force at the time of processing, including the GDPR.
4. Without prejudice to paragraph 3, the Bank, credit institutions and the Malta Development Bank shall inform counterparties that the information, including personal data, in relation to any exposure, will be made available on the said Register for the purposes of this Directive, and may be shared with credit reference agencies for the issuance of credit scores in accordance with article 24A of the Act and Directive No 15.
5. The Bank may require the Agency to pass to it personal data, as defined by the GDPR, pertaining to data subjects which is necessary for the Bank in the discharge of its duties under this Directive.

DEFINITIONS

6. In this Directive, unless the context otherwise requires;

‘Agency’ means “Identity Malta Agency” or “Identity Malta”, or “Identità” established by Identity Malta Agency (Establishment) Order (SL 595.07) or any such authority or agency, as the case may be, nominated to regulate the identity management of natural persons and the implementation of migration processes;

‘Connected parties’ refers to affiliates operating within the same group of companies;

‘Consent of a counterparty’ means any freely given, specific, informed, and unambiguous indication of the counterparty’s agreement to provide access to information on exposure held on the Register as specified in the respective Annexes to this Directive. The counterparty’s consent shall be made in writing, or through secure electronic means of communication;

‘Credit institution’ means a credit institution licensed in accordance with the Banking Act \(Cap. 371 of the Laws of Malta\) including those credit institutions, subsidiaries and branches of credit institutions exercising the freedom of establishment in accordance with the European Passport Rights for Credit Institutions Regulations \(S.L. 371.11\);

‘Credit reference agency’ means any undertaking licenced by the Trade Licensing Unit in terms of regulation 47A of the Trading Licences Regulations, the main business of which is to prepare, assemble and evaluate credit information and related credit and risk management services on legal and natural persons for the purpose of issuing credit scores to be furnished to third parties, provided that a credit reference agency is not precluded from carrying out other related tasks;

‘Credit score’ means a measure of creditworthiness derived from credit information and which must under pain of nullity include data derived from the Register;

‘Data subject’ has the same meaning as assigned to it by the GDPR;

‘Directive No 15’ means the Central Bank of Malta Directive No 15 on ‘Supervision of Credit Reference Agencies’;

‘Existing counterparty’ means a natural or a legal person already having an exposure with the Bank, a credit institution, or the Malta Development Bank, but shall exclude credit institutions whether licensed in Malta or abroad;

‘Exposure’ means loans, advances, overdrafts, credit lines, financial guarantees or any other credit facility in any currency which, considered individually, the credit lines or the outstanding balance exceed five thousand euros (€5,000) or the equivalent in a foreign currency calculated on the basis of exchange rates published on the website of the European Central Bank;

‘GDPR’ means Regulation \(EU\) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Directive 95/46/EC

(General Data Protection Regulation);

‘Malta Development Bank’ has the same meaning as assigned to it by article 2 of the Malta Development Act (Cap. 574 of the Laws of Malta);

‘Other institutions’ means the institutions referred to in article 24(4) of the Central Bank of Malta Act (Cap. 204 of the Laws of Malta); and ‘Prospective counterparty’ means a natural or legal person who seeks an exposure with the Bank, a credit institution, or the Malta Development Bank with which it has no existing exposures, but shall exclude credit institutions whether licensed in Malta or abroad.

For the purposes of this Directive, terms used in this Directive shall have the same meaning as is assigned to them under the Act.

REPORTING REQUIREMENTS

7. The Bank, credit institutions and the Malta Development Bank shall provide the information to be held on the Register as specified in Annex I of this Directive. The Bank, credit institutions, and the Malta Development Bank shall report to the Register the end-of-month balances of exposures related to the credit operations as listed in Annex I by the twentieth (20th) calendar day of the month following the reference month to which they relate.

If the submission date falls on a weekend or a public holiday, credit information the first month following the date of issuance of this Directive.

8. The Bank, credit institutions, and the Malta Development Bank shall be fully responsible for the correctness and completeness of the information they provide in relation to the Register. They are exclusively responsible for amending or rectifying it, on their own initiative or at the request of their counterparties or the Bank, whenever errors or omissions occur.
9. Only the data submitted in relation to the previous twenty-four (24) months up to the latest reference period shall be available on the Register. Data related to exposures that were designated as at least one of the following: (i) past due more than ninety (90) days, (ii) forborne or (iii) written-off shall be available on the Register for a period of five (5) years.

RIGHT TO ACCESS INFORMATION

10. The Bank may provide access to the information held on the Register to credit institutions, the Malta Development Bank, credit reference agencies, and other institutions as indicated in Annex 1 of this Directive.

11. The information accessed shall be used exclusively by the requesting institutions referred to in the preceding sub-paragraph and shall not be transmitted to third parties, in part or in full.
12. Information held on the Register shall be used by the Bank in accordance with article 24(1) of the Act.
13. The information provided to the Bank, to credit institutions, the Malta Development Bank, credit reference agencies, and other institutions, shall not include any reference to the entities submitting the information held on the Register referred to in paragraph 6 above.
14. Credit institutions, the Malta Development Bank, and credit reference agencies shall designate a number of their officials as authorised representatives for the purpose of granting exclusive access to the Register and shall notify the Bank in writing. Any changes to the authorised representatives shall be promptly reported to the Bank.
15. The Bank may impose limits on the number of officials that may be granted access to the Register. The information held on the Register will be accessible by means of a two-way factor authentication method.

ACCESS TO INFORMATION BY CREDIT INSTITUTIONS AND THE MALTA DEVELOPMENT BANK

16. Information held on the Register shall only be used by credit institutions and the Malta Development Bank for the assessment of credit risk.
17. (1) In making a request for access to information held on the Register over a prospective counterparty, credit institutions and the Malta Development Bank shall provide evidence of the prospective counterparty's consent, containing the information found in Annex II of this Directive.

(2) The consent referred to in the preceding sub-paragraph must be submitted, through the Register's portal, within one (1) month from the date on which it was given by the prospective counterparty.

(3) Subsequent to the submission referred to in the preceding sub-paragraph, access to the Register shall be given for a period of two (2) months. The Bank shall be informed without undue delay where a prospective counterparty withdraws consent.
18. Access to information held on the Register over existing counterparties shall be made available whenever required.
19. (1) Counterparties having an exposure guaranteed by the Malta Development Bank shall be informed by the credit institution that the information held on the Register concerning them may be shared with the Malta Development Bank.

(2) Without prejudice to the provisions of the preceding sub-paragraph, the Malta Development Bank shall not require the consent of the counterparty to access the information held on the Register requested in connection with exposures guaranteed the Malta Development Bank.

Provided that, the credit institution, where applicable, shall have had to electronically submit, through the Bank's portal, the consent of the counterparty.

ACCESS TO INFORMATION BY A CREDIT REFERENCE AGENCY

20. Information held on the Register shall only be used by credit reference agencies for the issuance of credit scores.

21. (1) In making a request for access to information held on the Register, credit reference agencies shall provide evidence of the counterparty's consent, containing the information found in Annex III of this Directive.

(2) The consent referred to in the preceding sub-paragraph must be submitted, through the Register's portal, within one (1) month from the date on which it was given by the counterparty.

(3) Subsequent to the submission referred to in the preceding sub-paragraph, access to the Register shall be given for a period of twenty-four (24) hours.

22. (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of the preceding paragraph, a credit reference agency shall not require the consent of a natural or a legal person when the request to issue a credit score is made by a credit institution or the Malta Development Bank.

Provided that the credit institution or the Malta Development Bank, where applicable, shall have had to submit the counterparty consent containing the information found in Annex II of this Directive.

(2) Any communication between a credit institution, the Malta Development Bank and a credit reference agency, which shall make reference to information on counterparties held on the Register, shall be made between authorised representatives. Such authorised representatives shall correspond through a secured channel.

PROVISION OF INFORMATION BY THE INSTITUTIONS MENTIONED IN ARTICLE 24(4) OF THE CENTRAL BANK OF MALTA ACT

23. The Bank may provide information held on the Register:

- a. on the basis of reciprocity arrangements to central banks and other institutions of Member States of the European Union, and to other institutions of the European Union, that create databases comparable to the Register;

- b. to the Listing Authority for the purposes of performing the functions set out in Part III of the Financial Markets Act (Cap. 345 of the Laws of Malta);
- c. to the Malta Stock Exchange for the purposes of fulfilling its objects; and
- d. to any other institution as the Bank may consider necessary.

Provision of information shall be made in accordance with the rules that may be established by the Bank from time to time.

- 24. Without prejudice to paragraph 22, the Bank may upon request, approve access to the information held on the Register to the European Central Bank to carry out its functions under the Statute of the ESCB and of the ECB.

REQUEST FOR INFORMATION BY NATURAL OR LEGAL PERSONS

- 25. Counterparties, or their lawful representatives, requesting to exercise the right under article 24(3) of the Act to have an extract of the information kept on them on the Register, shall first submit such a request through an online form available on the Bank's website or by sending a written request by registered mail, and subsequently make an appointment with the Bank, whether virtually or physically as the Bank may direct, presenting an official identification document in case of a natural person. The lawful representative should also present his official identity card, passport or similar official documentation and proof, to the satisfaction of the Bank, of a power of attorney or other certification confirming that he is authorised to act as the counterparty's representative. The said extract of information shall comprise the details indicated in Annex I of this Directive.
- 26. A request by a lawful representative of a legal person shall be accompanied by a copy of the Memorandum and Articles of Association or the Statute of the legal person, and, if necessary, a board resolution clearly identifying and authorising the representative to request the extract. These documents shall be certified and dated by a professional, such as an advocate, notary, accountant or a bank official.

EXPOSURES ON GUARANTORS AND CONNECTED PARTIES

- 27. A credit institution, the Malta Development Bank and a credit reference agency may also request access to the information held in the Register on the following:
 - (a) natural or legal persons who are proposed to act as guarantors in relation to an exposure of an existing or prospective counterparty; and
 - (b) on connected parties of an existing or prospective counterparty.

Provided, that were applicable, the guarantors or connected parties of counterparty shall give their consent containing the information found in Annex II of this Directive.

For the avoidance of doubt, no information on the guarantees being offered by persons in relation to an exposure shall be stored on the Register.

AUTHENTICATION OF SIGNATORIES

28. An annual verification audit report to confirm the authenticity of the electronic application or the request signed by the counterparty shall be carried out by credit institutions, the Malta Development Bank, and credit reference agencies. Other institutions listed under paragraph 22 may also be requested to carry out a verification audit report.
29. The verification audit report referred to in the preceding paragraph shall be submitted to the Bank on an annual basis within the timelines as instructed by the Bank.

MISCELLANEOUS

30. Credit institutions, the Malta Development Bank and credit reference agencies shall not:
 - (i) outsource any of their activities for the extraction of data held on the Register to any agent, branch, entity, or subsidiary unless the outsourced service provider is recognised by the Bank in writing;
 - (ii) store credit register extracted information in another jurisdiction, under cloud computing arrangements or in any externally hosted systems without the prior approval of the Bank.
31. The Bank may issue guidance notes laying down the requirements for the information to be submitted regarding the outsourcing service provider and the provision of such outsourced services.
32. The outsourced service provider shall take all reasonable steps as may be necessary to ensure that the requirements of this Directive and any guidance notes issued thereunder are complied with.
33. Credit institutions, the Malta Development Bank and credit reference agencies shall remain fully liable for any acts of their employees, or any agent, branch, entity, or subsidiary to whom or to which activities may have been outsourced.
34. The Bank may require credit institutions, the Malta Development Bank and credit reference agencies to supply any information and documentation demonstrating that the risk attached to such storage in terms of paragraph 29(ii) above has been managed and mitigated.

35. The provisions under paragraph 17(8) of CBM Directive No 15 shall be applicable in relation to the Register.
36. The fees under Annex V of this Directive shall be paid by credit institutions, the Malta Development Bank and the credit reference agencies requesting access to the information held on the Register and by any natural or legal persons requesting an extract of information kept on them held on the Register.
37. Where any person contravenes or fails to comply with any requirements set out in this Directive, the Bank may impose an administrative penalty in accordance with article 56 of the Act and Central Bank of Malta Directive No 12 on Administrative Measures and Penalties for Infringements issued under the Act.

ANNEX I - DATA ATTRIBUTES

(Paragraphs 6 and 9)

Section 1: Definition of the attributes to be reported in the credit register granular exposure template, including the feedback to lenders and counterparties and means of data transmission
