Terms and Conditions

1. The Central Bank of Malta ("the Bank") reserves the right, at its sole discretion and without prior notice, to withdraw, any item from its coin programme at any time and for any reason it deems appropriate. The Bank shall not be liable for any loss, inconvenience or other consequence arising from such withdrawal. If an item is withdrawn from the Bank's coin programme, any payments made for that item will be fully refunded to the applicant within a reasonable time following the notification of such withdrawal.
2. The Bank reserves the right to refuse any order submitted for items in its coin programme, at any time and without the need to provide reasons.
3. The allocation of coins to applicants will be carried out in terms of the Bank's established policy as may be amended from time to time.
4. The Bank will make every reasonable effort to supply ordered items to all applicants. However, availability of the items cannot be guaranteed, and orders may be subject to limitations.
5. Retail prices for coin products are as indicated in the Bank's Coin Programme and published through the Bank's official communication channels. The Bank reserves the right to review and amend these prices periodically and such changes may be implemented without prior notice.
6. Full payment for the allocated coin products must be received by the Bank prior to delivery of the requested items.
7. Payments for coin products are to be made online by the applicant using Credit Card, PayPal, Apcopay, SEPA payment and SEPA Instant Payments. Cash and Debit Card payments are both accepted for in-person purchases over the Malta Coin Centre (MCC) counter. All payments must be completed using the methods specified by the Bank prior to the release or delivery of any allocated items.
8. Coin products must be purchased by the applicant either directly through the e-shop on the MCC website or in person at the MCC counter.
9. Applicants identifying as coin dealers must provide a valid business registration certificate and a VAT certificate. Requests from dealers in jurisdictions where VAT legislation is not in force will be considered on a case-by-case basis.
10. Customers may collect the purchased products in person at the MCC, subject to the collection procedures as indicated by the MCC.
11. Mail delivery service shall be available by the Bank. Postage and insurance fees are calculated according to the products selected and will be clearly displayed to the applicant prior to effecting payment. The Bank reserves the right to adjust delivery charges as necessary and will ensure all fees are communicated transparently at the point of sale.
12. Insurance coverage is mandatory for all purchases.
13. The issue dates announced in the Coin Programme are indicative and may be subject to change at the Bank's discretion. The Bank shall not be held responsible for changes in the announced issue dates and/or for any delays in notifying customers of the revised issue dates. Consequently, the Bank shall not be held liable for any delays in supplying orders resulting from such changes.
